Dear students and staff

The University is extremely sad to announce that Mr Sandile Ndlovu has unfortunately passed on. Sandile's family confirmed this tragic news earlier this morning. Our thoughts, prayers and condolences are with his family, friends and classmates at this very difficult time.

Sandile was in hospital following the violent attack in a lecture venue 12 days ago. The University will update students and staff about the funeral details, once the family has informed our Student Services Department.

May Sandile's soul rest in eternal peace.

Sincerely

DUT Communications team
